Creative Agency

Working with Impulse NYC was an amazing experience from start to finish. Their entire team was professional, organized and consistently went above and beyond to deliver outstanding results. Impulse was always willing to accommodate changes to the event, and their positive attitude set an incredible tone for the entire team. Their dedication and commitment to excellence completely differentiates them from other event production firms — we would not work with any other firm on an event, whether it be for 2000 people, or 20.
