We are so grateful to have partnered with Impulse to plan our company holiday party this year. Impulse knew exactly the type of venue and atmosphere that would be a fit for our employees and the party was a huge success. As a start-up company, our staff works tirelessly to grow the business so it's important that when we take a break to spend time as a team that it's time well spent.

Impulse took care of every last detail so we didn't have to worry about a thing. Everyone had a wonderful time.
